

Un patrimoine pour l'avenir
une science pour le patrimoine
Heritage for the Future,
Science for Heritage

PRE-PROGRAMME Update of 13/01/2022

TUESDAY 15 MARCH

The Louvre Museum

Ecole du Louvre, C2RMF (National Centre for Research and Restoration in French Museums)

From 08:15	Registration and welcome coffee
09:30 - 10:15	Welcome address by the official representatives and organisers
10:15 - 10:30	Introductory keynote lecture
10:30 - 11:30	Plenary session 1: Preserving and mobilising cultural heritage in the face of climate change: the role of research and innovation in an emergency context.
11:30 - 12:15	Coffee break
12:15 - 13:15	Plenary session 2: Heritage science and digital transformation: challenges and opportunities.
13:15 - 14:45	Lunch
14:45 - 15:45	Round tables 1
	The ever-expanding domain of patrimonialisation: challenges and perspectives.	Digital modelling: development and application of complex tools.	Towards new experiences of heritage: reflections on innovative mediations.	Preserving cultural heritage: new materials and innovative technologies in perspective.
16:10 - 17:10	Round tables 2
	Building the future in the light of the past: social, economic, political and educational value of cultural heritage.	Urban transformation and heritage in the light of political and societal issues.	Identity and social issues: identifying, interpreting, transmitting.	Adapting cultural heritage to climate change: from risk assessment to the implementation of solutions.
From 17:10	Coffee break

Bibliothèque nationale de France (BnF)

National library of France

From 08:00	Registration and welcome coffee
09:00 - 10:00	Round tables 3
	From decline to revival: cultural heritage and urban regeneration.	When culture meets nature: cultural landscapes in question.	Challenges and perspectives for the sustainable rehabilitation and renovation of built heritage.	Tangible heritage and green conservation: practices in question.
10:20 - 11:20	Round tables 4
	Towards inclusive and socially engaged heritage practices.	Digital heritage: frameworks and practices for a sustainable management.	Learning from the past: mobilising cultural heritage for a sustainable future.
11:20 - 11:55	Coffee break
11:55 - 12:05	Welcome address by the official representatives
12:05 - 13:05	Plenary session 3: Training heritage stakeholders: challenges and prospects.
13:05 - 14:15	Lunch
14:15 - 15:15	Plenary session 4: Cultural and creatives industries, a new field of application for heritage science.
15:15 - 16:15	Plenary session 5: The contribution of heritage science to the New European Bauhaus.
16:15 - 17:15	Summary of the key messages and closing address
17:15 - 18:30	Farewell drink

A reflective heritage for a resilient society

Sustainable management of cultural heritage

Cultural heritage in a changing context

Cultural heritage facing climate and environmental change